

Vermont Covered Bridge Driving Tours

8 Covered Bridges

Driving Time: 2 hours, 15 minutes (without stops)

80 miles total

- From Killington, follow route 100 north through Pittsfield. (11 miles)
- In Stockbridge, as road forks & route 100 turns left, you will go straight onto route 107. Stay on route 107 through Bethel and Royalton. (13.5 miles)
 - Turn right on route 14 south. (3.5 miles)
- In South Royalton, turn left on route 110 north towards Tunbridge. (11 miles)

Tunbridge has five covered bridges (all listed on the National Register)

Howe Bridge (1879)— South of Tunbridge Village at Belknap Road
Cilley Bridge (1883)—southwest of Tunbridge Village (off Howe Lane from VT 110)
Mill/Hayward/Noble Bridge (rebuilt 1999)—in the Village, on Spring Road
Larkin Bridge (1902)—North Tunbridge on Larkin Road (off VT 110)
Flint Bridge — North Tunbridge on Bicknell Hill Road (off VT 110)

Tunbridge also has two other structures are individually listed on the National Register:

Hayward & Kibby (or Hayward & Noble) Mill — on Spring Road in Tunbridge Village
South Tunbridge Methodist Episcopal Church

- After following VT 110 11 miles, turn left at East Randolph Road. (3.3 miles)
 - Continue onto Chelsea Road. (3.5 miles)
 - Turn left at VT-14 south. (10 miles)

You will see 3 covered bridges, all off VT-14 south in Randolph.

Kingsbury Bridge (1904) — on Kingsbury Road off 14
Gifford Bridge (1904) — on Hyde Road off 14
Braley Bridge (1909) — off 14

- In Royalton, turn right onto route 107 west. (13.5 miles)
- In Stockbridge, you pick up route 100 south and continue back to Killington. (11 miles)

